London's Dock Strike Order Dr. Sheppard Murder Trial To Proceed At Once

LONDON (AP) — Britain's Communist-backed waterfront strikes spread Monday to Liverpool and Birkenhead, but leaders of London's bus strikers called for a return to work Wednesday.

The busmen's delegates recommended a return to work so negotiations could be started with the London transport management on wage increases and changes in working conditions. The men want a minimum of $28 a week, about 54 more than they are making now.

The 20,387 striking drivers and conductors, who have tied up more than half of London's 7,000 buses, may or may not accept the delegates' recommendation. Protests greeted the delegates as they left the meeting. One bus man shouted to others waiting for news: "You've been sold out!"

With the London dock area paralyzed, strike organizers struggling to tie up all shipping around the United Kingdom riveted their attention on Liverpool, Britain's second port.

"The situation worsened here this afternoon," said a statement from the Liverpool section of the National Dock Labor Board.

The dispute centers on overtime. Since January, the National Assn. of Stevedores and Dockers has banned compulsory overtime. The union leaders say working overtime should be a voluntary proposition.

Spokesmen for the shipping industry affected so much by tides, argue that compulsory overtime is a vital part of a contractual agreement. The industry refuses to discuss any labor matters, with the association while the ban on overtime exists.

Erie, Pa. Mayor, Two Policemen Asked To Resign

ERIE, Pa. (AP) — City Council Monday asked Mayor Thomas W. Flatley and two policemen to resign because of their arrests on charges of accepting bribes from members of a 20-million-dollar a year gambling syndicate.

The mayor refused to resign but said he would do so "after I am exonerated," and forever divorce himself from filthy politics.

The police officers—Chief Inspector Jack Martin and Vice Squad member Edward Camilli—did not say whether they will give up their jobs.

Council's action followed the arrests of the mayor and policemen along with 40 other men. Dist. Atty. Damian McLaughlin said all were involved in the operation of a numbers lottery and pinball machine payoff racket that netted 20 million dollars a year in this city of 130,000 on the shores of Lake Erie.

Most of them were taken into custody Saturday in wholesale arrests by squads of state policemen and deputy sheriffs. Many of the defendants are proprietors or employees of news stands and shoe shine shops.

The mayor and the two policemen are charged with accepting bribes. In addition, the officers are charged with conspiracy.

EGYPTIAN WINS TITLE "MISS WORLD"

LONDON (AP) — Antigone Costandou, representing Egypt, Monday night won the title of Miss World in competition with beautiful and shapely girls from 15 other countries.

Her prize was $1,400 and other gifts.

Second prize went to Karin Hultman, of Rochester, N. Y., representing the United States.

Third honors went to Eli Mela of Greece.

Stringfellow Resignation

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — The Utah Republican State Central Committee voted Monday night to accept Rep. Stringfellow's resignation.

"The vote was unanimous. A successor was not named immediately."

Republican State Chairman Oral J. Wilkinson called the 18-member committee into session after Stringfellow admitted his fraud and said he would leave his political future to his party's leaders.

He went a little further Monday, however, submitted his formal resignation as a candidate from Utah's 1st Congressional District, and urged that it be accepted.

High Court To Rule On Bramblett Conviction

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court agreed Monday to pass on the validity of the conviction of Rep. Ernest K. Bramblett (R-Calif.) on charges of falsifying his office payroll and receiving "kickbacks" from a women listed as an employee.

The question before the court is whether the House Disbursing Office which handles congressional payrolls, is a government department or agency within the meaning of the false statement law. Bramblett was convicted of making false statements to the disbursing office.

In another ruling, the high tribunal turned down appeals by cowboy movie actors Roy Rogers and Gene Autry. The two had sought a review of their unsuccessful suits to prevent telecasting of old films made by them, in connection with commercial advertising.

The U. S. Circuit Court in San Francisco had ruled against both actors. Rogers sought an injunction against Republic Pictures Corp. to prevent telecasting of 81 films. A similar suit by Autry against Republic involved 57 movies.

In its second session of handing down orders this term the Supreme Court granted reviews in 6 appeals and rejected 26 others.

The Supreme Court also agreed to hear appeals from:

1. Three Wichita, Kan., taxicab drivers who were sentenced to jail for refusing to answer questions asked by a county judge during an inquiry into violence in a taxicab strike.

2. A decision declaring unconstitutional parts of an Oklahoma law regulating the eyeglass business.

3. The murder conviction of Aubrey Williams, a Fulton County, Ga., Negro who was sentenced to die in the electric chair for the fatal shooting of Harry Furst, a white man.

The high court refused to review a decision which upheld a Minnesota law requiring employers to give workers time off to vote each election day without docking their pay.

Mystery Shrouds Arrest, Hearing Of Petersen

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (AP) — The air of mystery surrounding the FBI's arrest of Joseph W. Petersen Jr., long a trusted employee of the supersecret National Security Agency, continued unabated Monday as a grand jury met to consider his case.

After sitting for 2½ hours and hearing three witnesses, the grand jury reported to U. S. District Judge Albert V. Bryan that it had not finished its deliberations. It will resume Tuesday.

None of the three men who went before the jurors today would give reporters a name U. S. Atty. L. S. Parsons Jr. and John F. Reilly of the Justice Department's Internal Security Division, declined to name them.

From other sources, however, reporters identified the first witness as William Frederick Friedman, famed cryptographer and a special assistant to the director of the National Security Agency, where Petersen worked amid some of the nation's most sensitive secrets.

Petersen, 40, a native of New Orleans and for 13 years an employee of the security agency, was arrested Oct. 9, nine days after he was fired, and charged with improperly obtaining documents and information connected with national defense "with intent or reason to believe" the data would be used to injure this country or to aid a foreign nation.

Authorities in downstream towns were not greatly disturbed. They expected some damage to roads, and crops in lowland areas as the river left its banks.

But they did not foresee further hardships and destruction such as marked the flood in upstream Pittsburgh-to-Wheeling areas during the weekend.

Parkersburg, 85 miles downstream from Wheeling, expected a crest of 37½ feet at 7 p. m. Monday. Belpre is just across the river from Parkersburg.

Belpre Chief of Police Earl W. Walker said his Washington County town of about 2,500 wouldn't be in much danger with a 37½ foot flood crest. At 40 feet Belpre folks living in lowland areas start moving out.

Chief Walker said no evacuation was planned.

The flood crested in Marietta this morning at 37½ feet, about a foot and a half above the flood stage. Damage was slight, some riverbank merchants had to move their goods, and about 25 families moved to higher ground.

Business Manager Of Girls Training School Resigns

CHICAGO (AP) — The business manager of the Illinois State Training School for Girls Monday announced her resignation because of "lack of organization and cooperation of the administrative level."

The resignation, effective immediately, was submitted by Ruth L. Conklin to Mary L. Shaughnessy, superintendent of the Geneva institution.

Miss Conklin wrote that her position had been made "untenable" because "continued resistance has been met in getting the co-operation and approval for necessary procedures and regulations."

She termed conditions "deplorable" in the training school and said that many complaints had resulted in a "constant state of emergency for more than a year."

Miss Conklin said among conditions which she was unable to cope with was the hoarding by institution employees of food supplies which were listed as having been fed to inmates, and maintenance of basement "strong rooms" in which recalcitrant girls were locked against orders of the Illinois Youth Commission.

At Geneva, Miss Shaughnessy said she had not read all of Miss Conklin's charges but that "as far as I can say, the majority of her report is untrue."

Miss Shaughnessy said there had been some instances of food hoarding by employees but the practice had been ended as a result of a recent investigation.

Ohio River Loses Its Power After Upstream Rampage

MARIETTA, Ohio (AP) — The sting appeared to be leaving the flooding Ohio River Monday as the crest of the rain-swollen stream headed toward Belpre, Ohio, and Parkersburg, W. Va.

Authorities in downstream towns were not greatly disturbed. They expected some damage to roads, and crops in lowland areas as the river left its banks.

Toronto Probes Debris For Hurricane Victims

TORONTO (AP) — Rescue workers Monday lifted more bodies from the silt and debris of Ontario's disastrous hurricane, bringing the casualties to 57 known dead and 39 missing.

Hurricane Hazel, which churned up out of the Caribbean last week and cut across the North American continent from the Carolinas to Hudson Bay, took a known death toll of 155 in Canada and the United States.

The final toll was expected to be much higher, as more bodies were recovered and reports arrived from isolated areas.

In the aftermath of the storm, worst in Toronto's history, 28 Canadians whose fate had been unknown since the torrential downpour and high winds struck Friday night were found to be safe.

Troops and civilians probed mud-filled cellars and the wreckage of flattened homes for more victims. The arrival of fair, cool weather favored the search, but recovery of the bodies continued to be a slow and heartbreaking undertaking.

Many relatives waited grimly to identify their dead at an emergency morgue set up in a fire station in Toronto's western suburbs, where the flooded Humber River wreaked the worst havoc.

While the lower Humber area was hardest hit, the damage extended as far north as the Holland Marsh, a rich market garden area 35 miles north of Toronto. There the waters of Lake Simcoe, under pressure by wind and rain, smashed a dike and drove 1,000 families from their homes. Most of the refugees were Dutch immigrants.

Total storm damage has been estimated as high as 100 million dollars. A government inspector said today three million dollars worth of crops in the area will be utterly destroyed if flood water is not drained off within 10 days.

Toronto's transportation lifelines were still functioning today despite numerous delays and detours. Stores and warehouses reported they have sufficient supplies. Railways said they expect slowdowns in freight movements until washed-out bridges are repaired. The Canadian National Railway said bridge crews and section hands were working around the clock to repair 150 washouts. All mainline passenger trains were getting through.

A special federal grand jury preferred the charge, reporting to U. S. District Judge F. Dickinson Letts that Powell refused to tell the jury whether he took his official diaries, or desk calendars, for the years 1946-54 with him when he left his Federal Housing Administration post last spring.

The grand jury says it needs the diaries in its investigation of housing irregularities uncovered by Chairman Capehart (R-Ind.) and other members of the Senate Banking Committee.

A week ago the jury complained to Judge Letts that Powell refused to give any information about the diaries. The court instructed him to answer. At a second session the same day, the jury reported, he again refused.

The jury's presentment said that Powell based his refusal "upon my constitutional protection against being compelled to testify against myself."

Powell also has refused to answer questions before the Capehart committee on similar grounds.

Punishment upon conviction for contempt is entirely within the discretion of the trial judge. In many cases it is imprisonment until the defendant purged himself by obeying the orders of the court.

Osteopath Accused Of Killing Wife

CLEVELAND (AP) — The first degree murder trial of Dr. Samuel Sheppard got underway Monday with the selection of the first juror. The trial judge refused a defense plea to delay the case.

The intense atmosphere that has surrounded the July 4 slaying of Sheppard's blonde, pregnant wife was highlighted by the first two jury prospects called.

Both men admitted their minds were made up on the case—although they didn't say which way. Both were dismissed automatically.

But the third prospect, Howard L. Barnish, a dark, serious man of 28 with an 11th-grade education, withstood an exhaustive examination by the state and finally was accepted.

Then the trial recessed overnight. Attorneys estimated it may take a week to select a jury.

Sheppard, a handsome, athletic osteopath, is accused of bludgeoning his wife, Marilyn, to death after a romance with a pretty young medical technician, Susan Hayes. He has never backedtracked in his plea of innocent.

Barnish is married, childless and a timekeeper in Cleveland's Republic Steel Corp. The defense questioned him minutely for more than an hour and a half.

The defense was denied further delay in the case and at the same time a separate plea for a change of venue—taking the trial to another county—was held in abeyance.

Trial Judge Edward Blythin denied a fervent defense plea for a postponement of the case "until all this furor dies down."

"We'll acquit the fellow," he told a reporter. "He'll acquit himself." Corrigan, a small, white-haired court veteran with a deceptive air of weariness about him, argued that widespread publicity has surrounded the case, prejudiced the Cleveland area and ruled out a fair and impartial trial.

"There has never been a case in this community," the 67-year-old lawyer declared. "For in the state of Ohio—and I doubt ever one in the United States—where a murder received the publicity this one received."

Judge Blythin conceded that the 35-year-old Marilyn's ugly death in her own bedroom more than three months ago aroused tremendous public interest. But he added, with a reference to American guarantee of press freedom:

"This court has never yet found any way in the world of quieting down publicity if newspapers and news media care to expound."

Judge Blythin agreed with the state that a postponement of weeks—or even months—wouldn't divert public attention from the drama. He said the osteopath's fight, Sheppard faces the electric chair if convicted of premeditated murder—unless the jury recommends mercy.

Next Two Weeks Crucial In Winning Election: Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Nixon, preparing to set out Tuesday on a 10-state windup speaking tour, said Monday the Nov. 2 congressional elections will be won or lost in the final two weeks of the campaign.

The Republicans "have the election won — if we mobilize our strength," Nixon declared.

The vice president's new campaign tour begins with a rally and luncheon in Pittsburgh and a reception and a dinner in Philadelphia Tuesday. He will return here Tuesday night before starting out for nine other states — Illinois, Montana, Wyoming, Nevada, Arizona, Idaho, Oregon, California and Washington.

Ousted FHA Chief Is Charged With Contempt Of Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — Clyde L. Powell, ousted chief of the Federal Housing Administration, was charged with contempt of court Monday and will be tried on Wednesday.

A special federal grand jury preferred the charge, reporting to U. S. District Judge F. Dickinson Letts that Powell refused to tell the jury whether he took his official diaries, or desk calendars, for the years 1946-54 with him when he left his Federal Housing Administration post last spring.

Editorial Comment

THE POSTWAR TREND

It is a well-remarked feature of the postwar democracies that the voting populace has generally declined to give ruling regimes the whopping majorities they like to have for working control in national legislatures. Not even the United States seems unaffected by this trend.

In 1952, the American voters of course gave the presidency to Mr. Eisenhower by a margin of 6,500,000 votes. But they approved a Republican House and Senate only by the narrowest edge.

The GOP is now engaged in an election campaign aimed not simply at holding control but at strengthening it. Yet signs are beginning to accumulate that this may prove an extremely difficult, if not an insuperable, task.

Door-to-door vote researchers like the able Samuel Lubell have been learning that a good many voters are not particularly disposed to give the President the improved majorities he seeks, though most of these people still like Mr. Eisenhower.

Soundings suggest that many are going to vote for Democratic candidates for the Senate and House. Whether enough will do this to give the Democrats control of Congress may not be easily predictable. But it does seem safe to say that if the GOP hangs onto control, its margin will not be much greater than now.

Far from worrying about this, a lot of voters appear to think it is the wisest thing. Some would deliberately try to produce a split, with the Republicans holding the White House and the Democrats the Congress. Indecision on voters' part accounts for some of this straddling. They are torn between the parties, favoring one on certain issues and another on other questions.

If the Democrats should take Congress, they will paint it as vivid repudiation of the Eisenhower administration. To some extent, it would be that. But the signs are that it would be more an expression of great caution.

Voters have developed increasingly in recent years the technique of playing one party off against another, of using one to check the other. That technique can be practiced without any great upsurge of resentment, and it could be way wide of the mark to interpret a possible Democratic victory in such terms. For if feeling were really running deep, it would hardly leave Mr. Eisenhower untouched—and he is just about as popular as ever.

It was common to say after 1952 that the election results showed people trusted a national hero but did not trust the Republican Party (hence the small margin). The judgment may have been accurate. But the coin had a reverse side which too often has not been looked at.

The 1952 outcome showed that the voters did not place full trust in the Democrats, either. They turned them out of the White House, and all evidence suggests they would not let them back in if the presidency were at stake today.

So the odd truth would seem to be that Americans, like other westerners, do not wish right now to place full confidence in any single major party. They find issues too confused, with no one party appearing to have all the answers.

This mood may not produce ideal working government, but evidently it is the only kind of government people are willing to put faith in at this troubled time.

The World Today

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate group has dug into teen-age crime, drinking and drug addiction to see what makes juveniles delinquent. Next it takes a look at television programs of violence and horror.

Beginning Tuesday, a subcommittee will open hearings on TV. It plans to call sociologists, psychologists, producers of programs, sponsors, actors, station managers and network officials.

For more than a year this subcommittee headed by Sen. Robert C. Hendrickson (R-N.J.) has held hearings around the country on various phases of juvenile delinquency.

It hasn't reached any general conclusions yet, or general solutions. It has received a lot of advice and opinions from specialists on juvenile delinquency, who don't agree among themselves on the cause or cure.

The Senate group is sure of one thing, although it's hardly news. Juvenile delinquency is nationwide. In 1953 about 385,000 juveniles were brought into court, and for every one brought to court three others had been picked up by police.

Last year juveniles under 21 accounted for 47 per cent of all arrests for larceny, 68 per cent of all auto theft arrests and 35 per cent of all those arrested for rape.

"When we talked of juvenile delinquency a few years ago," Hendrickson has said, "we were thinking mostly of youths in the 18 to 21 age bracket. Now we're finding serious crimes committed by children from 12 to 16 years."

A husband-wife team at Harvard Medical School, Doctors Sheldon and Eleanor Glueck, told the subcommittee they found after a 10-year study of 500 delinquents and 400 nondelinquents that:

Fifty per cent of the mothers of the delinquents had a history of criminality; 62 per cent of their fathers drank to excess; 66 per cent of their families had no systematic way of handling finances; 60 per cent of their parents did not love each other; 90 per cent of their families did not care what the neighbors thought of them; 70 per cent of their families never had any recreation as a group; and 60 per cent of them came from broken homes.

In Los Angeles, the subcommittee was told, some doctors were selling youngsters benzadrine tablets in big lots at a big profit.

When the subcommittee went to New York to ask questions about comic books, which feature tales of horror and violence, Dr. Fredrickson said: "It is the good child who is tempted and seduced by the comic books."

But the senior psychiatrist at Bellevue Hospital, Dr. Loretta Bender, said she saw no great danger to children's minds from blood and thunder comic books.

In Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"Oh, what a beautiful morning."

That's Shirley Jones' theme song each day she wakes up, because she's the luckiest girl in town. In the nation, maybe. A stage-struck kid of 20, she is now playing the lead in the biggest musical ever made. And she is the first player ever put under exclusive contract by Rodgers and Hammerstein.

The musical is "Oklahoma!" You've heard of it, no doubt. And you'll be hearing of the bright-eyed

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—A YEAR AGO Tuesday Arthur Godfrey fired singer Julius La Rosa, the first man ever to lose his job on a television screen in full view of millions.

The incident quickly blew up the biggest tempest in videos brief history.

Started by the storm he had created, the red-haired king of TV performers sorrowfully explained why he had dismissed La Rosa, the young navy veteran whose career he had launched. His reason, "Julie" lacked what Godfrey called "for lack of a better word," humility.

The explanation merely fanned the controversy. Humility? What was humility? A nation wondered whether Arthur himself had set any course records in humility.

Broadway cassandras—and some network executives, too—feared both "the great Godfrey" and his protégé would be hurt badly by their public airing of private differences. They figured Arthur would end up with a big dent in his famous charm and that La Rosa would make a fast buck out of the notoriety, then disappear from show business.

It hasn't worked out that way at all. Both Arthur and Julie have survived the parting, and time has even soothed the ulcers of a few CBS vice presidents.

What kind of a year has it been for the two principals?

Well, Godfrey lost and regained his air pilots license. Financially, he didn't do as well as General Motors, but seems in no danger of having to sell apples on street corners.

La Rosa, on the other hand, has earned $360,000 more than 10 times the $35,000 a year he was making with Godfrey. The money came from recordings, TV guest appearances and a nationwide night club and theater tour.

Julie averages about $7,500 a week for night club engagements, $5,000 for one night stands and pulled down $43,000 for two weeks at the Chicago Theater, where he had a percentage deal.

I reached La Rosa by phone during a stopover at the Chicago Airport the other day and asked him how he felt about Godfrey now.

"I realize that if it weren't for him, I wouldn't be where I am," he said, "but I can't quite feel toward him as I did before. But I am honestly grateful to him."

"No, I can't say I like him. But I don't dislike him either. I'm just grateful to him."

Does La Rosa now feel he has learned humility?

"Well, I've made quite a study of that word during the last year," said Julie, "and what it really means. I've read what Thomas Aquinas, St. Augustine and Bishop Sheen and other philosophers have said about it."

"You know it doesn't mean what most people think it does. Humility doesn't consist in just being nice to people. That just makes you a nice guy but it doesn't make you truly humble."

"Very few people have real humility. If you had it, you wouldn't know it yourself. I have found I don't have true humility. It is something between you and the man upstairs—between a human being and his God. I'll tell you honestly, I don't have it."

"But I think that I am a 10 per cent better person than I was a year ago. In 10 years maybe I'll show up. I have learned to control myself and to try to understand people instead of getting angry at them for what they say."

I dropped over to the massive set for the film and found Shirley in her dressing room.

I told her she'd have to change her name. Whoever heard of a star called Shirley Jones? No doubt she would be switched to Gloria Lamour or Rita Francis.

"I don't think so," she replied with a winsome smile. "I like my name and I want to keep it."

"When we started the picture, I asked the director, Fred Zinneman if he thought I should change my name. He said it had been discussed. But he voted in favor of keeping it. He said he was tired of all the phony glamorous names and it was time for a good old Welsh one like Jones."

Jones it is, and it fits her to a T. She has the blonde unpolished American beauty that the soap ads proclaim. Rodgers and Hammerstein realized this when they first auditioned her a year ago. In just a year she has risen from the chorus to the prized role of Laurey in the all-star "Oklahoma!" film.

The producers are gambling the tween six and seven million worth that her charm will come across on the screen.

Shirley is the pride of Smithton, Penn., a Pittsburgh suburb. Her father runs a brewery. She was taking singing lessons at 12 and played in the local stock and light opera companies.

In the summer of 1953 she went to New York with her parents for a visit. She saw a former vocal teacher who invited her to try out before an agent. The agent was impressed and asked her to let him arrange some auditions.

That was in July. She went home and contemplated whether to go to college or take a whirl at Broadway. The bright lights won out and she returned to New York in September.

Skin Rashes Should Be Watched With Suspicion

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

A "working woman" says she wants to know something about skin cancer because she has a rash on her back. The rash is a little red and itchy. The patches of keratosis can be cut out or treated by X-rays or the electric needle, if necessary. The choice of method depends on size, location, and most of all on the judgment of the physician.

The actual skin cancers, too, can be treated by surgery, X-ray or radium or combinations of these. If the patient has not been careless about letting some warning sign run on too long the results from skin cancer are not to be greatly feared.

The Mature Parent

The Meaning of the Word 'Self' to Self-Reproach

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

A reader has asked me the most important question any person can ask another. Though I've been asked it many times, I have evaded an answer. After pondering this last letter, I can evade it no longer.

This reader writes: "I am deeply interested in the kind of problems you discuss. However, because you sometimes neglect to define your terms, I often feel that you are withholding some precious information. For example, you recently attacked a mother for self-reproach. What do you mean by this term? I want to know what you mean."

No body, I'm sure, wants me to define the word "reproach." It means what the dictionary says: censure, condemnation.

What has been asked is the definition of the other word in the term. My reader is asking: "What is our self?"

It is that nature of us which is made in the image and likeness of God. Thus, when I attack a mother for self-reproach, I am defending this nature. I regard her self-reproach as a form of blasphemy.

If this definition of the self is not acceptable to my reader, I cannot tell her where to look for another. Though modern psychology also uses terms like "self-reproach," it cannot tell us what our self is.

The best it can do is to talk about our "personality"—that mechanism moved by the interaction of our passions, our inherited conscience and what is called the ego. But even our most learned psychologists have to shake their heads when we ask them to define our self.

Yet without a definition for it, we are condemned to believe that we are ruled by our "personality."

In my opinion it is a most destructive belief. For not to know that we possess a nature which God himself pronounced "good" is to be at the mercy of any nature that our "personality" wants to give us.

Thus, when a faulty personality involves us in a job failure or hurt by a child, it can scream at us: "See, see what a bad, undesirable, unlovable nature you have!" And with no sureness of a self beyond it, we have to listen.

When we know the self with which God has endowed us, we stop arguing with our "personality." We stop allowing it to dictate our "goodness" or our "badness" to us. And feeling the sureness of the self that has taken it over, our "personality" begins almost at once to behave.

Memo to Men Columnists:

Take a Look at Men's Wear

Memo to men who write columnists: On a day when column ideas come slowly a man columnist always has one last resort. If he can't think of a fresh idea he can at least get latest on feminine fashions.

So here's a tip for the gentlemen: Before you decide to ridicule the latest new look the ladies are succumbing to—maybe you'd better take yourself down to a men's clothing store and look at what is being offered in the way of MEN'S wear.

As you step inside the store don't be fooled by the array of dainty pastels into thinking you have blundered into Milady's Specialty Shop. Nope, you're in a men's store all right.

Look more closely at the pretty pinks, lovely yellows and delicate lavenders and you will see that they are indeed men's shirts, neckties socks—and even belts.

And those sheer nylon underthings, printed with cute pictures and even cuter slogans, aren't the latest fashion in ladies' panties—but men's shorts.

Take a real good look around at the black slacks being shown with pink shirts, the delicate lavender belts and socks, the junk jewelry in lieu of buttons on shirt cuffs and then if you have the nerve, go back and write a piece poking fun at women's fashions.

But if while you were in the store a salesman talked you into some lavender socks or a pink belt please have the grace to blush as you type that old saw about how women will wear anything if it's the fashion.

GAS, GASKETS and GLAMOUR. For a long time now the girls of this country have been in charge of the automobile manufacturing business. Their demands have brought around automatic transmissions, plenty of chrome, fine interiors, power steering, power braking, push-button windows, etc., etc.

But surveys indicate that a high proportion of the girls don't have the slightest idea what's going on when they drive down the street.

A series of schools, entitled "Gas, Gaskets and Glamour" are now being held throughout the country to tell the girls how an automobile runs. Evidently this is something their husbands never got around to doing, for the girls are turning out for the schools.

The first one in Jacksonville was held last Friday evening at the Enloe Motor company on South Main street. It will continue for another seven Fridays, beginning at 7:30 p.m. each evening. Topics to be discussed include design, maintenance, lubrication, insurance, financing and all the other things that go with keeping a car ticking in fine order.

"This is a gasket," says Wayne Kolberer, Enloe parts man in the first photo, as he holds up one before Reba Hamilton, Pat Swisher, Elizabeth Hardy and Paula Hudson.

"This is a transmission and it needs regular attention," says Harry Myers, Enloe lubrication man to Mrs.

Edward Plichta, Miss Beulah Wohlers, Mrs. Dorothy Grabbill and Mrs. Russ Walton.

"This is an air cleaner," says Monty Woolverton, Enloe service manager as he describes its function to Nona Read, Lee Heim, Martha Lorton and Mary Bentena.

"I don't know the answer now, but we'll find out before the school is over," says Miss Mary Louise Enloe, Pontiac dealer, in answer to a query from one of the "students."

Hog Run Largest Since Spring, '53: Net Price Loss

The largest hog run since the spring of 1953 put some additional pressure on the market and prices dipped to a new low in 20 months, according to the Producers Live Stock Marketing Association. Results in cattle were mixed, while best lambs lost an early advance to close unchanged.

Salable hogs at approximately 53,000 head reduced the late practical top to $19 cwt., although a few lots of select meat type offerings on the close reached $19.10 and $19.25. After five days of trading, butcher hogs were 15 to 25c net lower, with

Irregularity developed in cattle where steers averaged steady to weak and gains of around 50c appeared in cows and some light heifers and mixed yearlings. Bulls held steady, and vealers and calves strengthened. Dependable buying of stock and feeder cattle cleared a modest supply at steady terms. Open Membership Drive In Local Legion Post 279

Jacksonville Legionnaires plan a 1955 membership drive, according to an announcement Monday by Commander Edward Brennan. "We are out to top our 1954 quota," Commander Brennan said, stating that Jacksonville Legion Post No. 279 had 852 members for 1954.

A meeting of post officers, plus the executive committee and membership strategists will be held in the Legion Home at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 19.

"All active Legionnaires are invited to attend," Commander Brennan said. "We plan to extend an invitation to all eligible veterans of World War I and II and the Korean Conflict to join the American Legion. Membership teams, headed by Senior Vice-Commander Edward Witham, will make nightly visitations to the homes of prospective members."

The post Commander pointed out that the American Legion locally through action on the part of the post has made a prominent place for itself in the community.

"We seek additional members among other veterans," he said, "in order to help build the community and through the strength of numbers maintain the rights and welfare of veterans, including proper hospitalization, care for the disabled and their dependents, plus a variety of programs."

Old Schoolmates Together Again After 60 Years

PETERSFIELD — Rex and Mrs. Homer Brown were pleasantly surprised when Henry Siskles, of Ashburn, Ill., an old friend and schoolmate whom they had not seen or heard from for 60 years, dropped in to call on them.

Mr. Brown and Mr. Siskles attended the same school at Atlas about 1890-96, when Miss Nellie Barnham, now deceased, was teaching there. Mr. Siskles and Mrs. Brown, who was then Elizabeth Kendall, attended school together at nearby Central school before the Siskles family took up their residence in Atlas. The three had not all contact with each other over the long period of years. Mr. Brown said it was a great get-together and a wonderful visit full of reminiscences and memories.

Peas of those they knew well in their early school days still remain in the Atlas community, but among them are William Browning and George Helkey. Mr. Siskles has two sons who are residents of Louisiana. Mr. Brown, at this time, with whom he has been visiting.

Also calling at the Brown home on the same day were Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Smith, of Camp Point, Ill., old friends and neighbors. Mr. Smith was earlier of the Rockport bank for many years, before its dissolution, and a prominent resident of the county.

Tells Garden Club Of Gethsemane, Near East

Seventy-two members and four beautiful bowl of golden marigolds guests of the Morgan County Garden Club enjoyed an interesting meeting at the Jacksonville Youth Center Saturday afternoon, Oct. 16. The meeting opened with the playing of the flag led by Mrs. Herbert Capps.

Mrs. Wendell Brackett, Naples, accompanied by Miss Gladys Howard, said "Silvia." In the Garden, and "Thank God for a Garden." She was presented by Mrs. Charlotte Steber, music chairman.

Club members living in the Bluffs-Naples area arranged the program. Mrs. Lyle W. Bates, chairman, was unable to attend the meeting and Mrs. Virgil Coughlin introduced the speaker, Carl Ritter of Naples. Mr. Ritter spoke on his recent visit to the Near East and the Garden of Gethsemane.

He said that one of the highlights was the highlight from Rome to Damascus and the panorama of sea and land that stretched out below. He found Damascus an interesting and growing city, its growth since World War II being remarkable. His special interest in Damascus was seeing the places where the apostle Paul had been during his sojourn in that city so many years ago. He was shown the home of Ananias, which is a three room cave that has been made a shrine. He saw the wall and the window above it from which Paul was "let down in a basket" when his enemies were lying in wait at the city gates to kill him. Mr. Ritter was taken out into the rural area to a grotto where Paul is said to have hidden the next day as he made his escape from Damascus.

Garden of Gethsemane
Mr. Ritter spoke of the Garden of Gethsemane, located on the slope of the Mt. of Olives. Its historic and religious significance, rather than its beauty as a garden make it a place of human interest. A church is now located there. Eight olive trees, old and gnarled, said to have been there at the time of Jesus' crucifixion still remain. Rosemary is grown and each visitor may have some of the leaves.

He spoke of Jordan as a land of hate, and the attitude toward the American was very favorable in most instances. He went down to Bethlehem, but was not permitted to go across to Nazareth.

Mr. Ritter had with him some interesting souvenirs purchased in Jerusalem. Among them was a coffee urn and small cups and two small dishes, made of a silver composition, which are handed down from the Israelites some 1000 B. C.; a small oil burning lamp and the oil jug, and an incense jar, taken from an ancient tomb; a cross and tray of silver gilded and carved with delicate patterns; the work of an ancient craft; and beautiful needle work made by refugees.

He had with him a hardy evergreen plant of Japanese box, which he finds well adapted to this climate and prized for its hardy quality.

Mrs. Eugene Dodsworth, club president, conducted the business meeting. Mrs. Herbert Simke served as secretary in the absence of Mrs. Leon Stewart, and Miss Gladys Howard as treasurer for Miss Fern Naleh.

New Members
Minutes of the September meeting showed the following new members: Miss Caroline Abbott, Mrs. James Baird, Mrs. Virgil Coughlin, Mrs. Orris Duncan, Mrs. William Graubner, Mrs. Cecil Patterson, Mrs. Lloyd Smith and Mrs. Robert Taylor.

Guests were introduced as follows: Mrs. P. J. Munro of Bluffs; Mrs. Ruth Corrao of Jacksonville; Mrs. Luther Brookhouse of Chapin; and Mrs. William Eubank of Sioux City, Iowa.

Mrs. Dodsworth announced the appointment of Mrs. Herbert Capps as parliamentarian for the club. She asked members to remember the third Saturday of the month as Garden Club day, as cards will not be sent except on special occasions.

At the close of the program members and guests were invited to partake of refreshments prepared by the hostesses. Homemade cookies and cider were served from a lace covered table, centered by a

5-Year-Old Asks If Mom Worried: Trudged 20 Miles

OKANOGAN, Wash. — A hardy 5-year-old girl who officers said trudged 20 miles in 20 hours through the wilds of north central Washington wandered safely into a ranch yard 50 miles north of here Sunday as an army of men sought for a trace of her.

The first words of little Joyce Abel as she entered the yard of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wanger were: "Was Mommy worried?"

The Wanger ranch is 20 miles southwest of the home of Joyce's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Abel, from which she wandered Saturday while playing.

As hopes dimmed Sunday that Joyce had survived the freezing night she walked, tired but unharmed, into the Wangers' yard and told of traveling downhill through the darkness across rock-studded fields and grassy plains.

After she was reunited with her parents, a family friend said, "She's not as tired as most of the searchers; she was dressed in fresh clothes by 10 a.m. and ready to start playing again."

WILL YOUR CAR GO SOUTH FOR THE WINTER?

If you are going to drive around in a tropical paradise from now until next June there is no reason why you should pay any attention to the following suggestions.

Your car needs special preparation for winter just as much as you need a furnace fire, an overcoat, and all the other special equipment for freezing temperatures, ice, snow, slush and storm.

It will not only save you much money but assure safety and comfort on the road if you will now—without further delay—have your car checked over and prepared for the cold months ahead.

Most of our repair business all winter is on cars that were neglected in October. Owners could have saved about 90% of those bills by doing the obvious things before winter really arrived.

What are you going to do about it? Yes, indeed, we have everything necessary—this is a really up-to-date motor car maintenance establishment. Drive in any time.

Wisconsin-Ohio State Battle Expected To Draw 83,000 Fans

SPORTS TRAIL

By WHITNEY MARTIN
NEW YORK (AP) — Mr. Bright and Mr. Phogg discuss current events:

Mr. Phogg — It says here a guy by the name of Smith is going to manage the Phillies. I knew a Smith once.

Mr. Bright — That's a coincidence. Was his name Mayo Smith?

Mr. Phogg — No, it was some odd name, like Eddie, or Bob. Say, what was wrong with Terry Moore?

Mr. Bright — Well, they thought a manager should have minor league experience.

Mr. Phogg — Who won the World Series this year?

Mr. Bright — Don't be silly. The Giants, of course.

Mr. Phogg — Who managed them?

Mr. Bright — Leo Durocher. Everybody knows that.

Mr. Phogg — Where did he get his minor league experience? In Brooklyn, maybe?

Mr. Bright — Well, he's an exception.

Mr. Phogg — Like Eddie Stanky, and Bucky Harris, and Lou Boudreau, huh?

Mr. Bright — That's right. But as I say, the Phillies think a manager should practice somewhere else. The Phillies think experience is necessary.

Mr. Phogg — Then why did they fire Steve O'Neill?

Mr. Bright — Well, the Phillies are rather a tough club to manage, and I guess Steve wasn't tough enough. And Moore was too tough.

Mr. Phogg — This new guy is sort of medium rare, I suppose. How do they expect a fellow used to handling minor leaguers to come up and manage a team of major leaguers who are hard to manage?

Mr. Bright — That's your question. You answer it. Everybody speaks well of him.

Mr. Phogg — Why did the Phillies get to the Yankees to get their manager? Haven't they got any managers on their own farms?

Mr. Bright — Maybe they didn't think their managers were ripe yet.

Mr. Phogg — Maybe they were too ripe, huh? I still hate to see Moore go. He didn't get much change. This new guy, he's not a lot to learn about the National League. You can't learn that in the minors.

Mr. Bright — That's the smartest thing you've said. Anyway, the Phillies don't believe it's necessary for a guy to have a well-known name to be a successful manager.

Mr. Phogg — So they pick a guy named Smith, huh? Nobody ever heard of that name.

Joe Gargiola Turns To Radio

NEW YORK (AP)—Joe Gargiola, veteran National League catcher with the New York Giants, is quitting baseball to go into radio and television work.

Gargiola applied to Commissioner Ford Frick Monday to be placed on the voluntary retired list. He said he planned to go into TV work in St. Louis.

The receiver came to the Giants the first week of September, bought for the waiver price from the Chicago Cubs. He has been in the National League since 1946, playing with the Cardinals, Pirates, Cubs and Giants. Last season he hit .280.

Stadium Twin Bill On December 4

CHICAGO (AP)—Iowa and Minnesota will play Loyola and De Paul, respectively, to open the Chicago Stadium basketball doubleheader program Dec. 4.

Announcement of the Stadium's opening card was made Monday by Arthur Morse, graduate manager of athletics at De Paul. De Paul is sponsoring the Stadium basketball series for the 17th season.

Morse said five more doubleheaders will be presented, beginning Jan. 29, and will be announced when details of two dates are settled.

YOUNG DECISIONS TURNER

BROOKLYN (AP)—Paddy Young, New York middleweight, won a unanimous 10-round decision over Jesse Turner of St. Louis, before a crowd of 1,435 fans at the Eastern Parkway arena Monday night. Young weighed 165, Turner 158 1/2.

Employing a hooking attack throughout most of the grueling battle, Young staggered his rival with a left hook in the fourth round, and had him in trouble again in the sixth.

Turner connected with a left hook to Paddy's jaw in the second round that sent him staggering halfway across the ring. But Young recovered quickly.

By FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The odds-favorites are having a tough time picking a favorite for Saturday's Wisconsin-Ohio State grid game.

Only one thing is certain about the contest, which shapes up as one of the year's dandiest duels. The certainty is that at least 83,000 fans will fill the big Buckeye horse-shoe for the torrid tussle.

Both the Badgers and Bucks are unbeaten. Both are in the top 5 nationally. Both are in the Big Ten. Both want to go to the Rose Bowl. And the statistics for four-game winning streaks show they're just that even on the field, too. Wisconsin has rolled over Marquette, Michigan State, Rice and Purdue, while Ohio has turned back Indiana, California, Illinois and Iowa.

As they go against each other, here's how they've fared, with the Ohio figures first:

First downs 72-71, rushing yardage 1006-381, passing yardage 348-504, total net gains 1354-1385, passes attempted 43-66, passes completed 24-38, passes intercepted by 5-6, passes had intercepted 7-1, punts 15-17, punting average 33-37, fumbles lost 4-7, yards penalized 222-122.

Ohio has outscored four opponents 109 to 34, Wisconsin 91 to 27.

The Bucks will rely on two fleet-footed halfbacks, Bobby Watkins and red-haired "Hopalong" Cassa-way, fullback Alan "The Horse" Ameche. Each of the three has scored five touchdowns in four starts.

Ohio is out in front in the Big Ten race with three straight conquests, having knocked the "I's" Indiana, Illinois and Iowa out of the running. Wisconsin is tied in the second slot at two victories with Minnesota and Michigan, and the latter pair clear up their differences Saturday at Ann Arbor. They change opponents for the season's finale, with Michigan at Ohio, and Minnesota at Wisconsin.

Ohio's touchdown twins have 575 yards rushing in 104 tries, Watkins going 346 in 54 and Cassidy 229 in 50. Ameche, the Wisconsin work-horse, has 387 in 74 plunges, and Quarterback Jim Miller has romped 196 yards in 40 tries. That gives the two Badger threats 583 yards in 114 jaunts.

Coach Ivy Williamson of Wisconsin, in five cracks at Ohio State, has lost four and tied one. But Ohio State scout Esco Sarkinen said Monday:

"This is the best team Ivy's had up there. It has poise and courage, and a great defense. This should be the game of the season, with practically everything riding on the result."

Frosh-Sophs Lose 13-6 To Beardstown

BEARDSTOWN — (Special) — Coach Bob Blazier's Freshman-Sophomore team traveled to Beardstown last night and fell to the host team 13-6.

The Crimson jumped off to a 6-0 lead in the first period when halfback Gary Little went over from the five yard line. The attempted conversion was not good.

The visitors maintained this lead until the third period when the hosts tied the score. In the fourth period an intercepted pass on the Jacksonville 20 gave the Tigers their final TD and the ball game.

J.H.S. starting lineup:
Ends: Bostie, Warcup
Tackles: Ramsey, Hazelrigg
Guards: Hembrough, Moy
Center: Fitzsimmons
Quarterback: Woodward
Halfbacks: Belinson, Little
Fullback: Varble

YONKERS, N.Y. (AP)—Eight trotters were entered Monday for the 25,000-added Gotham Trot, final major free for all race of the eastern season at Yonkers Raceway Thursday night.

Probable favorite in the mile and one-half event at 2-1 is the entry of Katie Key and Gene Mac, owned by Pat Tuccio of Riverhead, N.Y. Katie Key won the $35,000 Roosevelt Trot in July.

With eight starters, the Gotham Trot will be worth $29,375.

Pronto Don, winner of the race in 1951 and last year, wasn't entered. The Hayes Fair Acres Stable star is en route to California for the Western Harness Association's Grand Circuit meeting at Hollywood Park.

Marigold Gardens Bout Postponed

CHICAGO (AP)—The International Boxing Club's first non-televized Chicago fight card at Marigold Gardens, the start of a series to build up local talent, has been cancelled for Tuesday night.

The IBC said Ron Stribling, 135-pounder from Cedar Rapids, Ia., has a virus infection and will be unable to go through with his 10-round featured bout against Chuck Adkins of Gary, Ind.

The IBC said another card will be arranged with the hope of starting the Marigold Gardens series Oct. 26.

Kansas City Enthusiasm Will Remain Unchanged

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Enthusiasm of fans in Kansas City for baseball, whether it is minor or major league caliber, will probably remain unchanged by the decision to keep the Athletics in Philadelphia.

That was the opinion expressed Monday by Ernie Mehl, sports editor of the Kansas City Star, and L. P. Cookingham, city manager.

Mehl said that Kansas City would continue to seek a major league club, but that he believed interest in the Kansas City Blues would be unchanged as long as they remained here.

We will continue to support the Blues as we have always done," Mehl said. "There may be some slackening of interest in the American Association club right now, but I'm sure that interest will be renewed as the ball club resumes its play next year."

City Manager Cookingham expressed a similar belief that baseball fans here would continue to support a winning baseball team, whether it was a major or minor league club.

"I think that baseball fans are alike the world over," said Cookingham. "And I believe their interest in a winning team will not be changed whether it is the Kansas City Blues, or a major league organization. I don't think baseball is dead in Kansas City, nor do I believe our chances of getting a major league club here are hopeless."

Student Testifies Badger Players Sell Tickets

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—A University of Wisconsin student said in superior court Monday it was a "widespread practice of University of Wisconsin football players to sell tickets they get free for grid games."

The student, Robert Halloran, New Bedford, Mass., charged with ticket scalping, told Acting Superior Judge Donald Kaatz that he sold a ticket to the Wisconsin-Purdue game Friday night for $12 for his roommate, David Howard, Mondovi, sophomore end on the Badger squad.

Halloran told the judge that the practice of players selling tickets was widespread and he did not figure he was doing anything wrong.

"I think there is a sufficient amount of this going on among football players and around the state," Kaatz said in imposing a $10 fine, "and in your case, I think there were mitigating circumstances."

Guy Sundt, University of Wisconsin athletic director, said that university football players get from two to six tickets each for games but that the department was unaware of what they do with them.

"We assume they are for relatives and friends," Sundt said. He added that sophomore members of the team get two complimentary tickets, juniors four and seniors six.

Holloran said that he sold the ticket to Howard and did not profit from the proceeds of the sale himself. Howard was with Halloran in court but did not testify.

Halloran was one of four men arrested in ticket scalping charges by Madison police, the other three were not involved with player tickets.

Plane Trouble Delays U.S. Basketball Squad

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—The Peoria Caterpillars, U.S. representatives in the second world basketball championship, have been delayed in arrival here by plane trouble, it was announced Monday.

Their plane developed trouble en route from Lima, Peru, and was sidetracked to La Paz, Bolivia. Another plane left Rio Monday to pick up the Americans, as well as the Peruvian team on the same plane.

The tournament opens Saturday, and Peoria—runner-up to Argentina in the 1953 tournament—has been named the favorite this time. Other nations considered to have the best chance of pulling an upset are Brazil, Canada and Uruguay. Yugoslavia, Chile, China, France, Israel, Paraguay, and the Philippines also are entered.

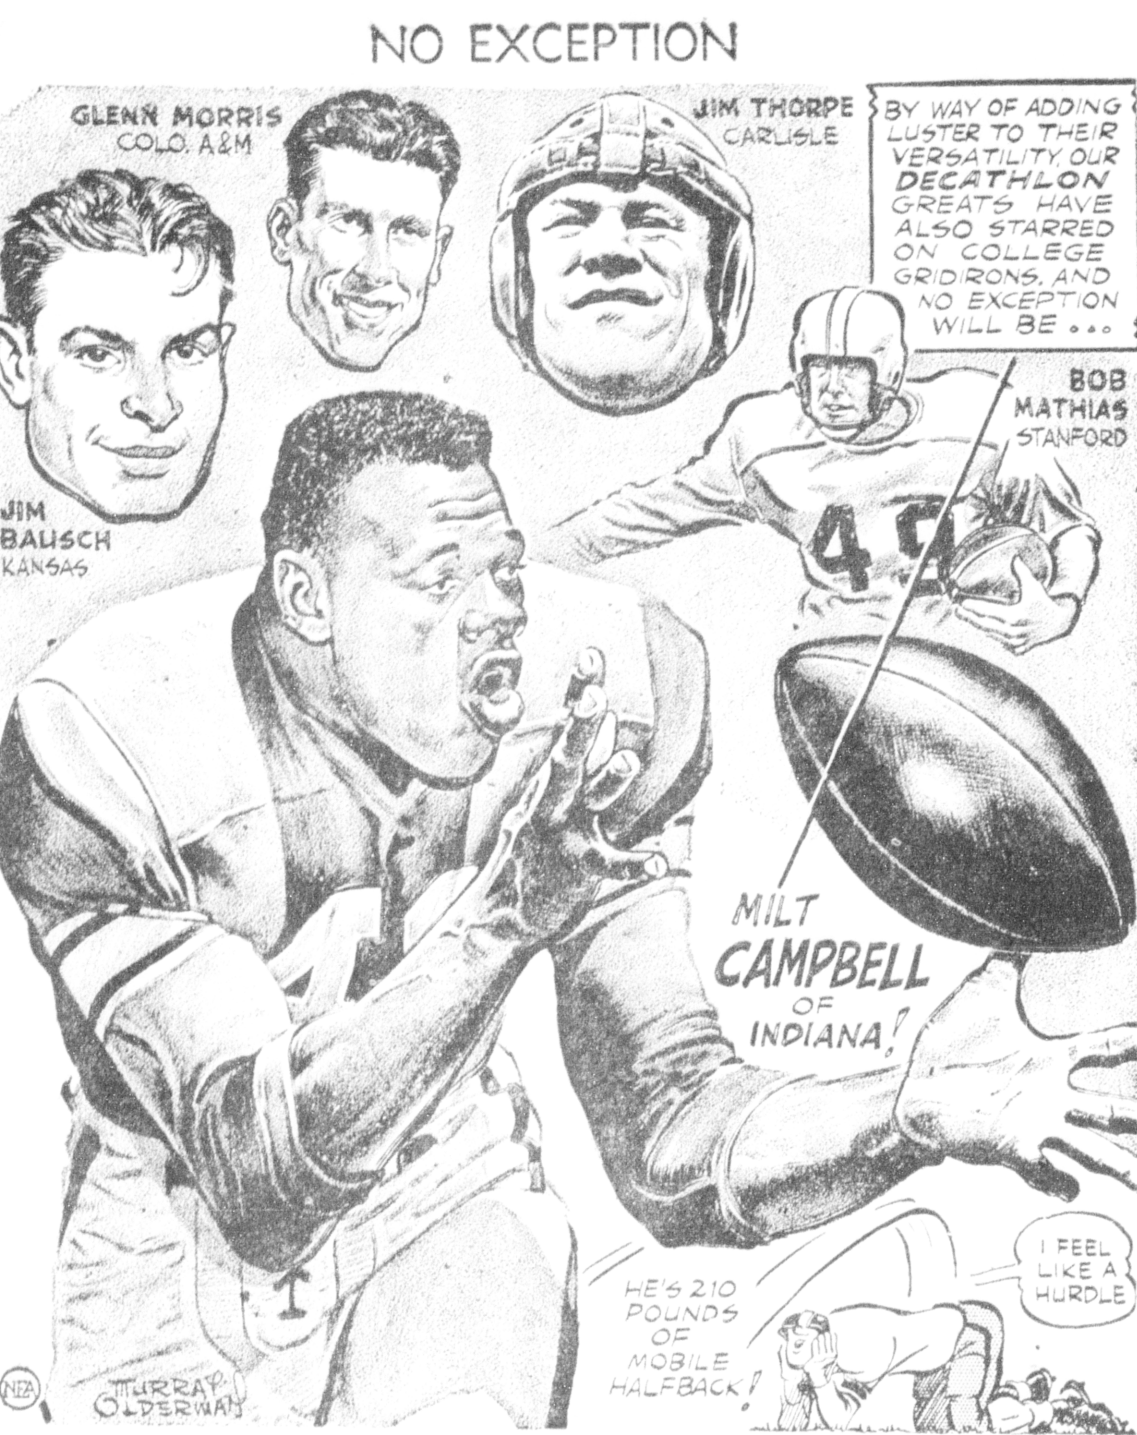

Harry Fitzhugh Re-Elected V.P. Of H. S. Assn.

Harry Fitzhugh, well known football and basketball official and principal at Franklin, has been re-elected to a three year term to the Board of Directors of the Illinois High School Association.

At a recent meeting of the Board he was re-elected vice president of the organization. There are six members on the State Board and Fitzhugh represents Division 5 which comprises twenty counties and approximately one hundred thirty-five high schools.

DREYER STOPS TISCARENO

Thrilling Finishes Spark Downstate Prep Activity

Springfield, Ill. (AP)—Iron man feats and last minute finishes provided some thrilling action in weekend games on downstate Illinois high school athletic fields.

One of the season's most notable ball carrying achievements was turned in by Vic Bolinger who let unbeaten Alton to a 14-7 victory over Granite City. The powerful fullback lugged the puskun on 33 of 50 rushing attempts by Alton, netting 187 of his team's 231 yards and scored all the points.

Another fullback, Bill Burrell of Central Community, also staged an iron mtn performance but it wasn't enough to turn the tide and Gilman won a 21-13 decision. Burrell carried the ball 36 times, accounting for 184 yards and both of his team's touchdowns.

Paxton salvaged a victory in the dying seconds when End Ben Ingold grabbed a Watseka fumble and ran 35 yards to score, producing an 8 to 6 triumph.

On the final play of the game, Shelly Brax spearred a 25 yard pass from Billy Johnson for the touchdown that gave Lake Forest a 12-7 verdict over Crystal Lake.

In some other standout exhibitions, Halfback Les Frith of Dwight raised his five game total to 12 points by scoring two touchdowns and one conversion as his school tied Gardner, 13-13.

Mount Carmel, which absorbed its first defeat of the campaign, could place much of the blame on Halfback Earl Howe of Salem, who ran 12 yards for the first touchdown and then put his team ahead to stay with a 65-yard scoring dash. Salem won, 21-13.

Vernon George, Rock Island guard, placekicked the extra point after each of seven touchdowns in a 49-7 conquest of Kewanee.

Halfback Ken Welliver counted all three touchdowns as Newman captured its fifth win in as many starts by defeating Longview, 21-0. Newman has kept its goal line uncrossed to date.

Fullback Cliff Strom of Allenton of Rock Island, who a week ago tallied five touchdowns against Notre Dame of Quincy, stood out in the East Moline tilt although his team lost, 21-14. Strom piled up yardage consistently, registered one touchdown and intercepted four passes that ended scoring threats.

RUNAWAY ARTISTS—Mississippi's Allen Muirhead, left, and Navy linecracker Joe Gattuso are a pair of collegiate backs who can run away and hide from the opposition. Muirhead went 62 against Vanderbilt and Gattuso showed his stuff against Stanford when he smashed the line for three straight first downs, then stepped out for a 37-yard TD dash. (NEA)

Top Four Teams In AP Poll Remain Unchanged

By JOHN CHANDLER
The Associated Press

Oklahoma, Wisconsin, UCLA and Ohio State, the big four of the Associated Press nationwide football poll last week, remained on top of the college football pinnacle in that order again Monday, but four other teams tumbled from the top 10.

Arkansas, Minnesota, Army and West Virginia moved into the first 10 this week, replacing Purdue, Duke, Penn State and Navy in the weekly ratings. Penn State, tripped up by West Virginia 19-14, and Navy, handed its first defeat by Pittsburgh 21-19, skidded clear out of the top 20 teams. A week ago they were tied for ninth place.

A total of 212 votes were cast by sports writers and sportscasters, and Oklahoma—which blasted Kansas 65-0—received 115 first place ballots. On the basis of 10 points for first, nine for second, etc., Oklahoma rolled up 1,891 points.

Wisconsin, with a 20-6 conquest of Purdue, got 42 first place votes, double the number received a week ago. This defeat knocked Purdue from the No. 5 spot last week to No. 13. Wisconsin got heavy support in second and third place votes and wound up with 1,732 points.

UCLA, the Pacific Coast pace-maker, received 23 first place votes after overwhelming Stanford 72-0, and ranks No. 3 with 1,590 points. Ohio State, which polished off Iowa 20-14, got 8 first place votes and 1,387 points.

After the first four, however, the poll was hardly recognizable, although both Mississippi and Notre Dame moved up a couple of notches.

Ole Miss, which clobbered Tulane 34-7, advanced from seventh to No. 5, and Notre Dame went from No. 8 to No. 6 after edging Michigan State 20-19.

Arkansas, No. 12 last week, zoomed to the No. 7 spot after rocking Texas 20-7 to take over the lead in the Southwest Conference. Minnesota, a returning football power, headed the second 10 a week ago, and jumped to No. 8 after defeating Illinois 19-6.

The biggest advance was by Army, which ranked No. 18 last week but went to No. 9 by shocking Duke 28-14. This dropped Duke from sixth place a week ago to No. 19. West Virginia rounds out the top 10, moving up from No. 14 last week.

Football Briefs

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Illinois, hoping for its first victory in five starts, Monday opened drills for the Syracuse game Saturday on a lively note.

An offensive scrimmage was held against the frosh.

Percy Oliver is the new varsity left tackle after being a surprise starter at that spot against Minnesota. He weighs only 194 but his speed helped on defense against the Gophers. Oliver replaced 272-pound Fred Wilmoth.

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—The Syracuse University football team Monday held a secret, indoor practice session in an effort to tighten its pass defense for Saturday's meeting with Illinois at Champaign, Urbana.

Prior to losing to Boston University Saturday, 41-19, the Orange Tom Gastall completed seven of 18 passes for 184 yards.

Coach Ben Schwartzwalder is working for better coordination between his line and his defending secondary operatives.

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Coach Bob Voight's opened "fumble prevention week" for his Northwestern football players Monday as drills started for Saturday's game with Pittsburgh.

Northwestern fumbled seven times, losing the ball four times, in its 7-0 loss to Michigan. The team now has made 26 fumbles in four games and 14 have been recovered by the opposition.

Voights said that during the week he would give sophomore Jack Ellis of Rock Island, Ill., a thorough trial at quarterback. Ellis has been on the third and fourth strings.

Northwestern's only injured player is fullback Bob Lauter who has either a bruised shoulder or a separation.

FAN BREEZES

BY BILL MERRIS

AD BREEZES r-

The gent who brought the drop-kick back to Jacksonville has played his last football for Illinois College. Senior end Jim Frame suffered a broken arm in the homecoming contest with William Penn Saturday afternoon and will be out for the season. This will not only end his three year college grid career but it will also end the "drop-kick era" at the Hilltop.

—O—
If you attended the game Saturday you would have seen the 6-2, 190 pounder from White Hall boot the first two IC extra points squarely through the uprights. Although the points after had no bearing on this game they certainly might have and it was good to see them picked up early in the contest.

What makes his extra points so different is it's a one man affair. It has been a long time since the people of Jacksonville had seen a drop-kicker in action. Jim had very little opportunity to put his toe into last season. In fact it had been something like eight games since he had the chance to try for the point after. It seems you have to make a touchdown before they let you try for the extra point.

—O—
However practice had kept him in the swing of things and he came through like a pro until the already injured arm was stepped on and broken. This same arm was jammed a couple weeks ago and was placed in a cast, this jumping out of the frying pan cast was removed just prior to Saturday's contest. That's really and into the fire.

—O—
Although this is Jim's third year in the local school, he will graduate this spring. His service and summer school credits account for the early graduation. Jim lettered in football and basketball at IC and also lettered in these sports at the White Hall school during his prep days.

—O—
It's a tough blow for the school to lose a player of Jim's ability and he will certainly be hard for coach Miller to replace. However with any luck at all he should be ready to play basketball comes the first of December.

—O—

Coach Bob Kraushaar and Al Rosenberger sent the Crimson line-men out to break the "four-minute mile" yesterday afternoon and although no one gave Bannister anything to worry about the two coaches were well pleased with the speed of their forward wall.

—O—

First prize went to end Larry Knight with the time of 6:20. This didn't surprise us too much since to tall end has been used quite successfully on the end around play. Second place went to tackle Jim Symons with 6:45. Three players tied for the number three spot, Max Roegge, Junior Coats and Jim Wilson came in 6 minutes and 58 seconds after they started. Center Bill Meyer was sixth with an even seven minutes. Every man that started finished.

PICCARD PREPARES FOR UNDER SEA TRIP

CASTELLA MARE DI STABIA, Italy (AP)—Auguste Piccard launched his diving boat Trieste Monday for a new excursion under the sea.

The Belgian professor, who piloted the boxlike craft to a depth of 10,339 feet last year, insisted that this year he doesn't care to see how deep he can go.

"What I am after," he told reporters, "is scientific data. That, and nothing else."

Piccard said he has invited six scientists to go along when he makes the next descent this weekend or early next week. But they'll have to be lean scientists. The Trieste is only 50 feet long and 13 feet wide, and it's stuffed with diving gear and scientific gadgets. Piccard refused to name the scientists.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Rodney Ross Houston, en route to Fort Campbell, had an accident at a detour on U. S. 41. A wrecked retrieved his slightly damaged car and Houston made it to Fort Campbell.

On the return trip Houston again wrecked his car on the detour. He escaped with minor bruises but the car was seriously damaged.

New York Stock Market

By ARTHUR MERIMS

NEW YORK (AP)—Steel, motor and some oil provided the impetus for a small advance in the stock market Monday. Railroads, however, failed to follow the market leaders and volume declined to 1,790,000 shares from 2,250,000 shares Friday.

Trading began at a brisk pace with a number of large blocks crossing the ticker tape at higher prices. Carriers attracted considerable support at the start. But the pace soon slowed and most early gains were trimmed.

Slow and selective trading continued into the afternoon. But in the final hours, reports of increased steel and auto production prompted demand for these securities. Joining the rise were most oils, airfares, radio-television and copper mining issues. However, farm implement, rubber, chemical, utility, airline and motion picture stocks closed irregularly.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks climbed 30 cents at $134.90. The industrial component rose 90 cents at $185.60 and the utility component remained unchanged at $62.80. Railroads lost 20 cents at $99.90.

Trading narrowed to 1,163 issues from 1,197 Friday. Of these, 447 advanced and 419 declined. There were 33 new 1954 highs and eight new lows.

American Stock Exchange issues were generally lower as volume declined to 570,000 shares from 610,000 shares Friday. Among the losers were Fairchild Camera, Great Atlantic & Pacific, DuPont, Glen Alden Coal, Mead Johnson and Parke-Davis, Bunker Hill, Cessna Aircraft, Hazeltine Corp. and Humble Oil.

U.S. government bonds declined in slow over the counter trading while the corporate bond market fluctuated narrowly.

LIMIT BARLEY IMPORTS INTO U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower Monday issued an order limiting imports of barley into the United States to 27,500,000 bushels for the year which began Oct. 1.

The President rejected a recommendation by the Tariff Commission that the United States tack a tariff fee of 8 cents a bushel on imports above 22,500,000 bushels.

The Tariff Commission had investigated barley imports upon complaints that they were threatening markets for domestic barley.

The flat import ceilings of 27½ million bushels imposed by the President compares with 38 million bushels actually imported in the crop year which ended last Sept. 30.

Although rigidly controlling the amount of imports, Eisenhower did not recommend any increase in import fees on barley, which now run about 7½ cents a bushel.

The President said Canada has agreed to take voluntary action this year limiting exports to this country of feed barley to 3½ million bushels.

New York Bond Market

By WALTER BREDE JR.

NEW YORK (AP)—The bond market was a mixture of gains and losses Monday with plus and minus signs striking a fairly even balance. There were no wide swings in a point or more were rare. Several heavily traded rails wound up in the minus column.

Long-term Treasury loans were a shade easier over the counter. The bank-elephant and victory loan 2½% of 1967-72 each lost 2-32 at 99.24-32 bid; the Treasury's 30-year 3½s were bid 2-32 lower at 110.24-32.

Biggest fluctuations were in the foreign list, where several German issues advanced a point or more, including Germany 5½s up 1¼ at 85¼ and Germany 5s ahead 1¼ at 78¼. Japanese lens were mostly strong, with Tokyo City 5s of 1952 gaining 5¼ at 71¼ and Oriental Development stamped 5½s ahead 1¼ at 72¼.

Total bond sales on the New York Stock Exchange came to $2,999,000, or value against $3,160,000 Friday.

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A section of a jury for the trial of Thomas P. Hermann, 22-year-old former mental patient charged with first-degree murder in the killing of his neighbor, began Monday in suburban Clayton Circuit Court.

A jury of 12 will be selected from a panel of 30 persons in the court of Judge Raymond E. LaDriere.

The impaneling, expected to occupy the rest of the day, started after Defense Attorney Henry G. Morris put Mrs. Geneva McGinnis, a deputy probate clerk, on the witness stand.

Mrs. McGinnis identified records indicating Hermann was adjudged insane in 1950, that he had been committed to a mental institution, and that she knew of no action since then to restore his legal sanity.

In answer to a question by Assistant Prosecuting Attorney William G. McLaughlin, she testified she knew of no Probate Court record showing Hermann was incapable of determining right from wrong.

Hermann then was brought in for arraignment. Hermann made no answer when asked how he pleaded to the charge. He displayed no emotion but was pale.

Judge LaDriere said that since Hermann made no answer, the court would enter a plea of innocent for him.

Hermann, who has been in the St. Louis County Jail since Aug. 19, is charged with the fatal shooting of Dr. Cecil A. Z. Sharp, suburban LaDue physician at the doctor's home last June 29.

TRIPLET CALVES

VICI, Okla. (AP)—CHIEF Kahoe's Jersey cow has Whiteface triplets. Kahoe says the calves, whose father was a Hereford, are becoming family pets. There is a traffic jam at meal time. All three thrive on nursing from the same side.

Beet sugar was developed during the blockade of Europe during the Napoleonic Wars when Napoleon offered a large prize for the development of a domestic source of sugar.

Select Jury To Try Hermann On Murder Charge

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A section of a jury for the trial of Thomas P. Hermann, 22-year-old former mental patient charged with first-degree murder in the killing of his neighbor, began Monday in suburban Clayton Circuit Court.

A jury of 12 will be selected from a panel of 30 persons in the court of Judge Raymond E. LaDriere.

The impaneling, expected to occupy the rest of the day, started after Defense Attorney Henry G. Morris put Mrs. Geneva McGinnis, a deputy probate clerk, on the witness stand.

Mrs. McGinnis identified records indicating Hermann was adjudged insane in 1950, that he had been committed to a mental institution, and that she knew of no action since then to restore his legal sanity.

In answer to a question by Assistant Prosecuting Attorney William G. McLaughlin, she testified she knew of no Probate Court record showing Hermann was incapable of determining right from wrong.

Hermann then was brought in for arraignment. Hermann made no answer when asked how he pleaded to the charge. He displayed no emotion but was pale.

Judge LaDriere said that since Hermann made no answer, the court would enter a plea of innocent for him.

Hermann, who has been in the St. Louis County Jail since Aug. 19, is charged with the fatal shooting of Dr. Cecil A. Z. Sharp, suburban LaDue physician at the doctor's home last June 29.

43 Citizens Protest Removal Of Veterans' Units To New Site

A delegation of citizens residing in the vicinity of the 800 block on North Diamond street and 700 block on West Railroad street visited the city council last night to register protests, both written and verbal, against the removal of veterans' housing units from Illinois College property to lots on those two streets.

A petition signed by 43 residents of the North Diamond-West Railroad area urged the council to take immediate action "so that the structures will not be permitted to become a part of the real estate upon which they have been deposited."

The petitioners also asked the council to pass legislation "so that no property owners anywhere in the city will be confronted with the spectre of these buildings," which during the war years were used as temporary housing for veterans and their families.

Mason, Sangamon Cattle Win At American Royal

Named reserve champion steer was Pylon 1st, a Hereford, owned by James Fryar, 20, of Big Spring, Tex., a 4-H Club member.

Another Illinois entry was selected grand champion Shorthorn bull. The animal, Edellyn Banker Mercury, is owned by Edellyn Farms, of Wilson, Ill. The reserve champion Shorthorn bull was Echi Prince Regent, owned by Mathers Brothers, Mason City, Ill.

Boys Town of Nebraska scored heavily in the hog winner's circle. An 18-year-old boy, William Smith, had the reserve champion Hampshire barrow and the champion ship pen of three barrows in that breed. Smith, in his third year of exhibiting swine here, won the Hampshire championship last year.

A 46-year-old Marshalltown, Ia., resident, Joe R. Caputo, took most of the honors Monday afternoon. Caputo owned the reserve grand champion barrow, the grand champion pen of three barrows and 12 other assorted ribbons.

Monday's results included:

Senior yearling bulls — first, Edellyn Banker Mercury, Edellyn Farms, Wilson, Ill.; second, Combsland Mandrain, Ralph Bivins, Waverly, Ill.; third, Levelled Caesar, Mathers Brothers, Mason City, Ill.

Byerly Request For Curb On Ozark Operation Rejected

WASHINGTON (P) — The Civil Aeronautics Board affirmed its authority over intra-state air transportation Monday.

The CAB rejected a contention by Byerly Aviation, Inc., that the board is without legal authority to authorize operation of an air service originating and terminating within a single state.

Byerly, a Peoria, Ill., air taxi operator, had asked the CAB to reconsider an Aug. 20 decision renewing the certificate of Ozark Air Lines, and to prohibit Ozark from originating and terminating a service within a single state.

"It is clear that the movement by air of persons and property between points in the same state may be part of an interstate journey which is interstate air transportation as defined in our statute," the CAB said.

"Moreover, regardless of the movement of other traffic, if mail is on board it is interstate air transportation whether or not the aircraft moves wholly within a single state."

Byerly also asked the CAB to restrict Ozark's operations within Illinois so as to make it economically feasible for Byerly to serve communities which the CAB had found do not warrant air service by a trunk or local service airline.

The board denied the petition because it would "prohibit a potentially desirable local service which would contribute to the successful operation of a local service carrier which already provides a substantial amount of service to communities within Illinois, in order to make possible the operation of a yet unauthorized service the economic feasibility of which has not been established."

Cause Depreciation, Claim
The depreciation of some 20 citizens appearing before the council last night charged that the removal of four barracks or units into their neighborhood would cause great depreciation of their properties.

Adelino Bertens requested the council to pass legislation to prevent relocation of the buildings, which he said everyone believed were to be torn down after serving their needs at the college. He declared that the assessed valuation of property in his neighborhood would be affected if the four units were to remain, and suggested that this situation would be taken into account in future assessments.

J. O. Ryan, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Seymour were among others who spoke briefly in support of the petition. At times there were comments from the spectators' section in the council chamber without recognition from the chair.

Mayor Extends Sympathy
Mayor Howland, expressing sympathy for the delegation and their cause, declared it to be "a very bad situation, one we regret very much."

He said that the council had the understanding that the temporary housing would be torn down, but that the buildings were removed and sold by the individual who had the contract to another purchaser, who has promised to convert the units into more attractive form than they are at present.

The mayor pointed out to the delegation that the council is powerless to act so long as the housing units conform with the zoning ordinance and plumbing codes. The city does not have a building code.

"It is because we can't do anything that we're not doing anything," Howland declared. He promised to assist the delegation in seeing that zoning and plumbing regulations are complied with, and that the relocated units are made as slightly as possible.

To Lay Phone Conduit
City Clerk Phillips read a petition from the Illinois Telephone Co., asking permission to extend an underground conduit system from the alley at the rear of the American Legion Home to an alley west of Dunlap Court, three south to where it will enter the new telephone building at West Beecher and Dunlap Court, W. O. Randall, district manager of the phone company, was present and discussed the project, which is in connection with establishment of a dial system.

On motion of Alderman Rowe, a resolution was passed authorizing the company to make the excavation for the conduit.

A petition signed by Clifford Farmer, Richard Post, Kenneth Frye, Patrick Shalla, Walter Virgin and William Hettenscheidt, owners of lots on East State street which they desire to be zoned for residential use, was read by the clerk. The properties are near the city limits on East State. The petition was referred to the Planning Commission.

The report of City Treasurer Ilma B. Cline for September showed a balance of $17,369.10 in the general fund.

Alderman May reported the receipt of bids for furnishing stoker coal for the city hall, which requires about 150 tons each winter. On motion of Alderman Merriam, seconded by Alderman Allen, the council voted to award the contract to the B. & H. Coal Co., on its bid of $6.60 per ton.

Railroad rolls became unusually slippery in damp weather because at such times a very thin layer of oil often spreads over the rail.

PTA To Query Candidates On Two Questions

Legislative candidates in the election Nov. 2 will be asked two questions by the South Jacksonville Parent-Teacher Association, it was voted at a meeting of the board members held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Anderson.

"If elected, will you support a bill providing for a deficit appropriation for education to give the equalization aid promised by the 68th General Assembly?" is the first question.

800 Hear Pete Riggs As Revival Continues

More than 800 persons heard Dr. Pete Riggs, one of the nation's best known young evangelists, deliver a forceful sermon on "The Saddest Word in the Bible" at Central Baptist church on West State street Sunday night. Many were standing throughout the service.

At the Sunday morning service of a revival now in progress at the church, Dr. Riggs preached on "What Is Your Life?"

Dramatizing the Great White Throne of Judgment, the evangelist declared the saddest word in the Bible is "Lost." He used the authority of Jesus' statement in Luke 19:10, "The Son of Man is come to seek and to save that which was lost."

The Central Baptist revival reached the half-way point Sunday night. Riggs, a former Jacksonville man, is assisted in the evangelistic campaign by Rev. W. H. Spencer, pastor, and Lowell Lenthorn, song leader. Ed Jenkins is at the Hammond organ.

During the meetings each night 70 persons have made decisions for Christ. The revival will close next Sunday evening.

Seek More Donors For Bloodmobile As First Chairmen Are Named

The first appointments of public relation chairmen in business firms as representatives for the Red Cross Blood Program in an intensified effort to meet and surpass the quota given Morgan county, were announced Monday by Mrs. W. J. Casler.

These chairmen have been blood donors and are qualified to explain any procedure fellow employees may wish to know. They also will encourage other workers within their firms to make appointments to give blood when the Bloodmobile visits Jacksonville Thursday and Friday, Oct. 28 and 29.

Morgan county is in jeopardy of losing its approved standing in the Red Cross blood program which makes every resident of the county eligible to receive blood at an accredited hospital at the lowest possible charge. The only necessary charge made which varies according to the hospital, is for the administration of the blood.

If Morgan county did not have the blood program a patient would be charged for obtaining the proper type blood plus the cost of the administration, which many times is extremely expensive. No one really knows when he or she or their family will need the important service.

The community is fortunate now to be approved and is attempting to keep Morgan residents offering blood when the Bloodmobile visits here every two to three months. You have to give to receive and a healthy person giving blood is spending no money, but assuming himself and his friends and relatives the chance of having the life sustaining substance available when it is needed and at the lowest possible cost.

In addition to receiving whole blood needs at Morgan hospitals any county resident is also entitled to blood at any hospital in the United States that accepts Red Cross blood. In hospitals that have their own blood program and require two pints for one administered the Red Cross will supply one pint, providing the hospital will accept it.

Also another provision, if a person from outside the county donates blood at the Morgan county blood bank he or she is entitled to his whole blood needs for himself and immediate family for a period of one year from the date of his last donation. This is providing the hospital he is in accepts Red Cross blood.

Things To Remember
If anyone from Morgan county is hospitalized outside this county, his or her representative should make clear to that hospital at the time of entry or prior to discharge that the patient is eligible for Red Cross blood replacement. Morgan county doctors have cards for this purpose. False or wrong information about this matter is unfair to the patient and harmful and detrimental to the Blood program. If ANY difficulty arises, please contact your local Red Cross office, the Morgan county chapter number is 1844.

The county must have new donors, as well as the faithful donors of years back. Chairmen named in the following firms will be added to the work progresses in the pre-visit campaign: Ideal Baking Company, Bob Conover; Mrs. Tucker's Pools, Inc., Harry Wegeholt; Nesco, June VanDyke; Hertzberg - New Method Book Bindery, Donilee Hardy Brewer; Illinois Telephone
